

Bob Sinfield ... Here's a line or several about the talk:-

GENTLEMAN OF JAZZ tells the fascinating story of George Chisholm, from his boyhood in a part of Glasgow that made the Gorbals seem upmarket to a 50-year career in jazz that earned him the OBE and saw him work with everyone from Ambrose to Armstrong, from Goodman to the Goons, from Sinatra to Superman.